"A Walk on the Wild Side"

St. Joseph School held its annual prom last weekend, and it was a good successful event. The Seniors did a wonderful job setting up for the prom, The gym looked great! Some people said it was boring at first, because hardly anyone was there. Then people started showing up and requesting good music. After that, everyone started getting loose, getting up, and having a good time. The Prom King was Rhett Bordelon, and the Prom Queen was Mallorie Bertholl. Lots of people attended the "After Party," which was held at the F.F.A. camp at Old River. One St. Joes Times reporter said that it was "Awesome."
